

PORTLAND YOUTHBUILDERS

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHER

PORTLAND YOUTHBUILDERS

Portland YouthBuilders (PYB) is a nonprofit, two-year alternative high school and job training program with the mission to support low-income young adults, ages 17-24, who are committed to changing their lives to become self-sufficient, contributing members of the workforce and their community. At PYB, students complete high school with a GED or diploma and develop marketable employment skills by learning to build affordable housing from the ground up or learning to refurbish computers and provide technical assistance to low-income seniors. PYB students have the opportunity to serve as part-time AmeriCorps members and earn an AmeriCorps Education Award.

PYB is deeply committed to continuously working to make our organization a more equitable and just place for both students and staff. As it is written in our equity statement: At PYB, we believe that communities are strengthened when diversity is honored. We believe we have a responsibility to interrupt and confront inequity. At PYB, we commit to continuously reflect and challenge the ways in which we, as a community, and as individuals, perpetuate inequity. It is not only vital to our students' success but essential to our purpose.

POSITION SUMMARY

Develop curriculum and provide engaging instruction utilizing a culturally and linguistically responsive lens for social studies classes:

Social Studies: Focus on the critical analysis of social movements and current events with an emphasis on exploring systems of power and oppression and their impact on individuals and global society, as well as significant events in US History, Economics, and Government. Develop curriculum and provide instruction that supports multiple levels of reading and writing with a goal of developing critical thinking and analytical writing skills and preparing students for their GED and postsecondary education. Coordinate with the Language Arts teacher to support literacy skills development.

We are seeking someone who is committed to educational equity and inspired by working with young people from diverse backgrounds who are transforming their lives through learning and service. The teacher will work closely with the Career Services team to support students as they develop the knowledge, skills and habits necessary for success in postsecondary education and training.

People of color are encouraged to apply.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Thank you for your interest in joining the staff at Portland YouthBuilders. We offer a unique selection process designed to give you multiple opportunities to demonstrate your skills and abilities. The length and rigor of our process reflects our commitment to high-quality, data-driven instruction and preparing our students to go to and through postsecondary education and training.

Our selection process entails:

1. Application

- Cover letter
- Resume

2. Interview - You will be asked to meet with our hiring team for the semi-structured interview. Please browse our website www.pybpd.org to learn more about our organization in preparation for this interview. You should know about our history and what makes PYB different than traditional public schools. You will also be able to ask us any questions you have at this time.

3. Teaching observation and school tour - We would like to observe you teaching. The sample lesson should allow our team to view an entire lesson cycle from opening to closing. After you teach, you will be given time to reflect upon the lesson that you taught.

Please email your application (cover letter and resume) to Zachary Kerrissey, Education Director at jobs@pybpd.org. We will be reviewing applications as they come in until the position is filled. Please send your cover letter and resume as attachments (Word or PDF).
