

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT
Portland YouthBuilders
Counseling and Career Services Manager

POSITION SUMMARY

Portland YouthBuilders (PYB) is a nonprofit, two-year alternative high school and job training program with the mission to support low-income young adults, ages 17-24, who are committed to changing their lives to become self-sufficient, contributing members of the workforce and their community. At PYB, students complete high school with a GED or diploma and develop marketable employment skills by learning to build affordable housing from the ground up or learning to refurbish computers and provide technical assistance to low-income seniors. PYB students have the opportunity to serve as part-time AmeriCorps members and earn an AmeriCorps Education Award.

PYB is deeply committed to continuously working to make our organization a more equitable and just place for both students and staff. As it is written in our equity statement: At PYB, we believe that communities are strengthened when diversity is honored. We believe we have a responsibility to interrupt and confront inequity. At PYB, we commit to continuously reflect and challenge the ways in which we, as a community, and as individuals, perpetuate inequity. It is not only vital to our students' success but essential to our purpose.

As the leader of PYB's Career Services Team, this position will be directly supervising career coaches (advocates) and managing operations and services to ensure students receive support and stabilization services, gain the information, skills, and experience necessary to make informed career choices, develop a comprehensive career plan, and succeed in post-secondary education and/or placement aligned with their career goals. This position will also serve as the teacher of career exploration and development classes.

PYB seeks a candidate who is knowledgeable and passionate about changing the lives of low-income, highly-barriered young people. PYB is looking for someone who has experience working with a diverse clientele in the areas of career development and placement, building employer partnerships, and leading a team of professional staff.

SUMMARY OF BROAD AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Serve as an enthusiastic and creative manager of the PYB Career Services Team by providing leadership and innovative thinking in areas of program design, service implementation, strategies for student success, staff supervision, and compliance with contractual outcomes
- Supervise the career coaches (advocates) who provide comprehensive career coaching/support services to students to help them make informed career choices, develop an individualized career plan including post-secondary goals/training, and provide long-term support through their success in career-aligned employment. Career coaching is provided to students in one-on-one meetings and in group settings.

- Teach classes in career exploration and development
- Develop a strong network of employer partnerships to ensure adequate resources for student employment and work experiences including internships, job shadows, career guest speakers, informational interviews, etc.
- Work as a member on PYB's multi-disciplinary case management teams to collaboratively assess student progress and plan optimal programming to maximize student success
- Collect and analyze student data and develop reports as required by funding sources and to evaluate program effectiveness.
- Understand public-sector contractual requirements and manage the department to achieve strong student outcomes and contractual compliance.

Women and people of color are encouraged to apply.
