

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Portland YouthBuilders - Construction Trainer

Position Summary Portland YouthBuilders (PYB) is a non-profit vocational alternative high school and pre-apprenticeship program dedicated to serving young adults ages 17-26. PYB's mission is to help disadvantaged young people transform their lives through education, training, and the development of viable career pathways. PYB's state certified pre-apprenticeship construction training is offered through two programs: a year-long YouthBuild program, which offers high school completion along with pre-apprenticeship training; and the 9-week Bridge program offering pre-apprenticeship training for high school graduates.

PYB is deeply committed to continuously working to make our organization a more equitable and just place for both students and staff. As it is written in our equity statement: At PYB, we believe that communities are strengthened when diversity is honored. We believe we have a responsibility to interrupt and confront inequity. At PYB, we commit to continuously reflect and challenge the ways in which we, as a community, and as individuals, perpetuate inequity. It is not only vital to our students' success but essential to our purpose.

The Construction Trainer will supervise and instruct crews of students in the new construction and remodeling of affordable housing. This position will be primarily based in Washington County, with approximately one day per week spent at our SE Portland campus. The Construction Trainer is responsible for daily oversight, organization, safety and quality control of work performed on assigned projects. They work in partnership with other construction staff to plan daily crew assignments, plan project schedules, and share teaching responsibilities. They will also work on teams with academic teachers, counselors and career development professionals in a collaborative effort to help students develop personal skills and overcome barriers as they strive to define and prepare to achieve their career goals.

The ideal candidate will be committed to our mission and equity statement, and will be inspired by working with young people from diverse backgrounds as they transform their lives through learning and service.

Women and people of color are strongly encouraged to apply.
